LANCASTER STEINER SCHOOL REMOTE LEARNING POLICY

VERSION 2

DOCUMENT REVIEW PERIOD: OCTOBER 2021 – JANUARY 2022

SPECIFIC AIMS

- To outline Lancaster Steiner School's approach for pupils that, from September 1st 2020, will not be attending school as a result of government guidance or due to continued shielding.
- To outline Lancaster Steiner School's expectations for staff that, from September 1st 2020, will not be attending school due to self-isolation or government guidance but that are otherwise fit and healthy and able to continue supporting with the planning, teaching, and assessment for pupils.

WHO IS THE POLICY APPLICABLE TO?

In line with government guidance, pupils, staff and families should self-isolate if they display any of the following symptoms:

- A continuous, dry cough
- A high temperature above 37.8 Celsius
- A loss of, or change to, their sense of smell or taste
- Have had access to a test and this has returned a positive result for Covid-19
- Live with anyone who has the above symptoms, is awaiting a test result, has tested positive for Covid-19.

REMOTE LEARNING FOR PUPILS THAT ARE NOT ABLE TO ATTEND SCHOOL DUE TO SELF-ISOLATION OR IN LINE WITH GOVERNMENT GUIDELINES

Lancaster Steiner School will provide remote learning (online and via set work) for pupils that are not able to attend school so that no-one need be disadvantaged.

In the following points, an outline of the provision will be made and some guidance given on the role of pupils, teachers and parents.

Lancaster Steiner School are fully aware that these are exceptional times and would like to make it clear that the completion of work is not compulsory but that this document seeks to inform and guide families and not impose expectations.

We believe that the health and well-being of each child and their family is of utmost importance. We know that each family is unique and because of this, should approach home learning in a way, which suits their individual needs.

FAMILY (PUPIL/PARENT/GUARDIAN) ROLE

Where possible, it is beneficial for children to maintain a regular and familiar routine.

Lancaster Steiner School would recommend that each 'school day' maintains some form of daily rhythm.

Each week, on Monday, work for the week, for Main Lesson, practice sessions and some sessional learning will be sent via email and using the private class WhatsApp groups set up in April 2020. Families should view this together, and then make appropriate plans to complete the work.

Should anything be unclear in the work that is set, parents can communicate with class teachers via their school email addresses.

Work that children complete at home should be kept safe, ideally in their home learning book, and can be brought back to school when safe to do so. Parents may also share learning by emailing photographs etc. to the class teacher's school email address only (this is to safeguard both families and staff by having a clear and recoverable line of correspondence available to the DSL and Trustees).

To attempt to make use of the resources shared with them, we would encourage parents to support their children's work, including finding an appropriate place to work and, to the best of their ability, support pupils with work encouraging them to work with good levels of concentration.

Every effort will be made by staff to ensure that work is set promptly on appropriate platforms but school cannot guarantee that the chosen platforms will work on all devices.

Should accessing work be an issue, parents should contact school promptly and alternative solutions will be made available. These will be discussed on case-to-case basis.

TEACHER EXPECTATIONS

In addition to their in-school work, teachers from LSS will continue to support children that are unable to attend.

Teachers should plan learning that is relevant to the curriculum focus for that class and endeavour to replicate this through video clips and tasks for home learners.

Teachers should create videos for key teaching points of the Main Lesson Block and Practice Sessions where possible and send these via email to parents.

Any resources used, should, where possible, be shared with home learners. Staff will do this electronically and it will be the responsibility of families to print/use these resources at home.

Teachers will respond, within reason, promptly to requests for support from families at home. This should be done via email or by adding further video guidance for families. Staff and parents should communicate via class teacher email addresses.

Should a staff member require support with the use of technology, it is their responsibility to seek this support in school.

REMOTE TEACHING FOR STAFF WHO ARE SELF-ISOLATING

Teaching staff are required to self-isolate if they show symptoms outlined at the start of this policy or they have been told to shield and/or have received a letter to confirm this.

If a member of staff is required to self-isolate, they are expected to:

- Follow normal reporting procedure for planned absence.
- Following contact with school, School Manager, may set up a referral to Occupational Health to support that individual. School also suggest, that if needed, staff can contact the Croner HR individually. Details of this can be obtained from the School Manager.
- School will ask staff about their intention to get tested. Should a staff member be tested, it is expected, as per national guidance, to share the result of this test with school so that appropriate plans can be made.
- Whilst self-isolating, and if able to do so, staff will be given an individual project to work on which is line with whole school improvement priorities. These projects will be communicated by the School Governance Team and will be allocated on a case-by-case basis. Staff may also be asked to support ~~with~~ the online learning provision for classes they teach.

TEACHING ASSISTANTS AND SESSIONAL TEACHERS

Associate staff at Lancaster Steiner School play an integral part to the success of teaching and learning and are bound by the same professional code of conduct, attendance and commitment.

They will be expected to contribute to the remote learning of children unable to attend by liaising with The College of Teachers and individual class teachers to prepare materials and/or deliver specific aspects via the appropriate platform (email, video, WhatsApp).

If associate staff need to self isolate for the reasons already stated within the policy, they must report this in line with normal planned absence reporting.

If they are able to do so, they will be expected to continue to support learning in their respective area of expertise and/or contribute to an area of school improvement as directed by the SGT.
